“What is the most important question in life?” Ask that question and you might get 10,000 answers. But there really is only one correct answer. It has to do with what is going to take place after you die. And if you say, “Who cares what happens after I die!”, Jesus Christ answers “I care. And you had better care too!” Tom Hughes and I will share 5 brief pages today on the most important question in life. A warning not to wait until the door is closed. The realities that follow death. False calm before the storm. The unchanging choice of the lost. And Christ’s assurance that there is still mercy before midnight. Since you can’t avoid death, please don’t avoid the next 30 minutes. What Jesus has to say is always “More Than Talk”.
