

PROGRAM 142 TEASER

What if someone constructed a small hill in the middle of a desert and guaranteed nothing would make it disappear over 4,000 years. No bombs. No bulldozers. No bullies. The hill would be called “Zion” and represent a people called “Jews”. And the builder of that hill would call Himself “God” and tell all of mankind that each must give an account to Him. What would the world do? That’s simple. Destroy the hill and you make God a liar. Unimportant. Unworthy of notice. But if the hill cannot be erased from the earth, then what? Then the world has the proof that there is a God. You see, God guarantees His preservation of the Jews. It’s one way He tells you that He’s real and that you can trust the Bible. Interested in more?
