

Teaser 70

Life! Man oh man, it can be rough. You can sail alone if you choose. Try to tell the storms to calm down—and watch them laugh at you. Or you can take a look at someone who handled every thing this world could throw at Him—even death—and came out on top. So if you're sick of sin—or just plain sick—if you're a prisoner of invisible demons wearing you out—if you're looking for more than religious phonyism and more than mere material stuff that never satisfies, we have a friend named Mark who wants to introduce you to his life-changing friend. Interested? Let's get started with More Than Talk.
