

PROGRAM 74 TEASER

Imagine telling a source of integrity who offers you a life of love, joy, peace and meaning to “Hit the road. I’m not interested.” Or telling a powerful friend who offers to accompany you down a dark and dangerous street, “Thanks, but I’ll take my chances all by myself.” Or being about to die—afraid and alone—and pushing away a great physician who could guarantee you new health and years without end. You’d be crazy to reject such wonderful offers, right? But we do it all the time if we turn away from the One who loves us most. He would have to love us—to die for us. So today, let’s take time—30 minutes—to meet the One who loves you most. That’s what will always make Jesus More Than Talk.
